Antico Veneers is an up-and-coming company with a notion of reviving the ancient art of veneering with a contemporary and artistic touch. At Antico veneers, we endeavour to add not just vitality to an interior space but also bring freshness of ideas, designs and nature to your place. Based in Ludhiana, India, we take pleasure in offering our customers with high quality products, client services and helpful insight into the world of designs. We believe in changing the rawness of wood into a solution that is sustainable, elegant and efficient.

With our upbeat outlook and perseverance, Antico offers a rich palette of colours and designs of veneers for your residential as well as commercial spaces.

VARA

exotic VENEERS

VARA collection by the house of ANTICO symbolizes a story of quality and craftsmanship, offering every interior a different character and seasoned look, typical for both client and interior designer's sophisticated tastes. We offer a large selection of exotic species which include a large variety of burls, crotches and figured veneers. In contrast to traditional veneers the availability of exotic veneer is limited by nature but we at ANTICO try to source these from across the globe to give your dream project a distinctive aesthetic.
